Weekend of January 2-3, 2010

The festive season of Christmas will conclude next week with the feast of the Baptism of the Lord. Jesus' baptism is a significant moment in his public ministry. As we celebrate this feast we recall our own baptism and renew our baptismal commitment. It is fitting that this feast marks the beginning of National Vocation Awareness Week. Consider participating in our special celebration next week. (Include any information pertinent to your observance of NVAW.)

Weekend of January 9-10, 2010

On this feast of the Baptism of the Lord we begin National Vocation Awareness Week. Renew your baptismal commitment as you consider your call to serve God in your particular vocation. Hopefully some of you will hear a call to priesthood, diaconate or religious life and will be open to that possibility. If you would like assistance, please contact (supply information for contacting the local vocation director or a pastoral staff person). We will have a special observance of National Vocation Awareness Week (include information of place and time).
